

GREAT SOUTHERN RAIL TRAIL

Pass through lush farms as you head towards the highest point of the trail - a gentle climb for half of this 12.4km section. Once you reach the top, follow the sign to the Hoddle Range Lookout where you will enjoy majestic views across to Corner Inlet. It's then a relaxing descent as you approach Station Park.

FISH CREEK

Fish Creek is an artisans' hub filled with creative flavour. From an historical art deco hotel in the centre of town to studios and galleries where you can see the artist at work, this town is perfect for the curious to explore. There are a number of eateries and a 'fish' theme resonates with the recent addition of the 2006 Commonwealth Games fish sculpture and the large mullet on the roof of the art deco hotel, a renowned feature.

FOSTER

Rich in Gold Rush history and nestled around Stockyard Creek, Foster offers numerous walking tracks that link the surrounding flora reserves. Take your time exploring the range of shops, eateries and art spaces, or learn about the town's fascinating history in the local museum.

Enjoy a picnic on the banks of Stockyard Creek at Pearl Park, or check to see if there's a market or show scheduled while you are in town.

Foster town centre is 1.5km from the trail.
